CLOUGH GLOBAL OPPORTUNITIES FUND DECLARES A QUARTERLY CASH DISTRIBUTION OF $0.28 PER SHARE

Denver, Colorado— Today, the Clough Global Opportunities Fund (AMEX: GLO) declared a quarterly cash distribution of $0.28 per common share for October 2008. The dividend will be payable on October 31, 2008 to shareholders of record on October 16, 2008.

Clough Global Opportunities Fund Cash Distribution

Ex-Date: October 14, 2008
Record Date: October 16, 2008
Payable Date: October 31, 2008

The Fund has approximately $1.4 billion in total assets, the net asset value was $14.95 per share and the market price was $12.19 as of October 1, 2008. Subject to market conditions, the Fund intends to distribute subsequent regular quarterly cash distributions.

Chuck Clough, founder of Clough Capital Partners and portfolio manager for the Fund notes, “Our intent has been, and continues to be, that the distribution should reflect the changes in the Fund’s net asset value over time. Due to the recent decline in the Fund’s net asset value and the challenging overall market conditions that exist, we think it is appropriate to decrease the Fund’s distribution at this time to a level that we believe is more sustainable. We are confident, however, that the current financial turmoil is creating longer term opportunities in global equities.”

A portion of the distribution may be treated as paid from sources other than net income, including but not limited to short-term capital gain, long-term capital gain and return of capital. The final determination of the source of all distributions in 2008, including the percentage of qualified dividend income, will be made after year-end.
