The performance data quoted represents past performance. Past performance does not guarantee future results and current performance may be lower or higher than the performance quoted.

The hypothetical investment represents historical fund data. Returns for periods of less than one year are not annualized and therefore reflect cumulative returns. All distributions are assumed to be reinvested. Hypothetical investment values are based on performance of the Fund's NAV and values at each period end are shown, since inception.

S&P 500 Index: Broad-based measurement of changes in stock market conditions based on the average performance of 500 widely held common stocks commonly known as the Standard & Poor's 500 or S&P 500. Index is unmanaged. It is not possible to invest directly in an index.

Investment Objective

The Fund's investment objective is to provide a high level of total return. The Fund seeks to pursue this objective by applying a fundamental research-driven investment process and will invest in equity and equity-related securities as well as fixed income securities, including both corporate and sovereign debt, in both U.S. and non-U.S. markets.

This fact sheet is provided for informational purposes only and is not an offer to purchase or sell shares. The Clough Global Opportunities Fund is a closed-end fund, which is traded on the New York Stock Exchange AMEX, and does not continuously issue shares for sale as open-end mutual funds do.

An investor should consider investment objectives, risks, charges and expenses carefully before investing. To obtain a prospectus which contains this and other information visit www.cloughglobal.com or call 1-877-256-8445. Read the prospectus carefully before investing.

The recent growth rate in the stock market has helped to produce short-term returns for some asset classes that are not typical and may not continue in the future. Because of ongoing market volatility, fund performance may be subject to substantial short-term changes.
